En aquel año se celebró en el Museo de Bellas Artes de Bilbao la exposición 'Correspondencias. 5 arquitectos, 5 escultores', comisariada por Carmen Giménez, y por el escultor Juan Muñoz.

This catalogue features the work of artist Domenico Bianchi and an homage to the belated Mario Merz, specifically created for the exhibition in the city of Bari. A series of images reproduces the most important experiences by Bianchi (in indoor space), and Merz (in outdoor locations). Merz's work consists of a large igloo that stands on a silver painted cervo in the middle of the Renaissance Courtyard of the Castello Svevo. Inside the castle, along a 20-meter-long wall is a cross-shaped display of eleven paintings made by Bianchi out of wood, white gold, wax, and fiberglass as a tribute to and spiritual view of Merz's life and work.
