Finish the paper in its entirety, including all references used, and then add footnotes. Navigate to the end of the sentence where the footnote will go. If you are using a word processor like Microsoft Word, navigate to the references tab and select 'footnote' and then 'insert footnote' You should see a number "1" to the right of the sentence, and another in the footer.

In research papers and reports, footnotes commonly acknowledge the sources of facts and quotations that appear in the text. "Footnotes are the mark of a scholar," says Bryan A. Garner. "Overabundant, overflowing footnotes are the mark of an insecure scholar – often one who gets lost in the byways of analysis and who wants to show off" ( Garner's Modern American Usage , 2009).
