Injustice: Gods Among Us: Year Three, Vol. 1 by Tom Taylor

As always with Injustice: Gods Among Us, this volume was full of fast paced action, conflict of good vs. evil, humanity vs. godlike creatures, along with beautiful art. However, the change of writer shows and while the story is engaging, it lacks the emotional depth and incredible characterization of Tom Taylor.

Tom Taylors Injustice: Gods Among Us title gets its hat trick with this, the third volume in the series. Never woulda thought a series based on a video game set in an alternate reality could be better than the DC universes actual reality (the New 52).
