Information Exchange (Toronto) "HR had better have its ducks in a row when a crisis or disaster occurs. This book, well organized and to-the-point, will be a great reference for making that happen." —George Pearson, editor and publisher (retired), Canadian HR Reporter The book is on the reading list for the MBA in Public Relations at the DeGroot School of Business at McMaster University (Canada) and the MSc in Emergency Management at Dublin City University (Ireland). "Many books are long on text, short on ideas, and discarded during a crisis... Al has captured the essentials in checklist and bullet point format. I recommend his book to my students." —Alain Normand, Professor, Emergency Information Management, York University, Sheridan College "An excellent book in terms of content and as a learning tool for any disaster and emergency management professional — the material is well organized, systematically discussed and critically analyzed in way that is just right for a classroom setting." —Niru Nirupama, PhD, Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Emergency Management, School of Administrative Studies, York University "An excellent starting point for those new to crisis communications as well as for smaller organizations without access to extensive resources... " —Phil Rothstein in Continuity Insights magazine "Very well done. It delivers a wealth of great information and processes." —Gayle Mitcham, CBCP "A 'must-have' for business management..." —Midwest Book Review Written as a handbook for senior
