Duke of Shadows An incredibly well written story with a fascinating setting, appealing protagonists and a simply lovely romance. Set in India during the Sepoy Mutiny of 1857, Meredith Duran manages to convey the horrific nature of the events and the devastating consequences for both sides without descending into excessive depictions of gratuitous violence.

The main frustration I experienced with Meredith Duran's strong debut novel, The Duke Of Shadows, is that only its first half is set in India. In the middle of a desperate cliffhanger the story I had invested in drops everything only to reassemble itself in a new locale with new actors -- and with a ' Big Misunderstanding ' plot.
