and their world came to be.

An anthology of traditional chants and oratory from many American Indian tribes.

How can what is always eternal be spoken of in temporal terms? How can God who is far above us all be upon this earth and found to be dwelling among us and how can we be a reflection of Him? How can it be that God is in His Creation, and His Creation in God? Is the Father not the hidden One, from whom all things come? Is the Son not the saving One, by whom we are redeemed this day? Is the Spirit not the guiding One, through whom we shall come to Heaven? And are we not called to be as He is, one with the One LORD forever?

These narratives offer insight into a culture's values, its world view, and its interpretations of the relationship between the individual, society, and the divine.
