The Voice of the Night was originally published under the name of Brian Coffey (learned that here on Goodreads). But I have read quite a few of Koontz's books in the past. A few early ones, and then a bunch through the early 2000's. If there was one thing I could count on with his books, it's suspense.

The Voice of the Night, by Dean R. Koontz is the best book I have ever read. I couldn't put it down from the minute I picked it up and started reading it. If you want an example of a page turner, then here's one for you. The book is about a young fourteen year old boy, Colin, who moves to a new little town in the 1990's.
