A collection of pieces from the Baroque music period arranged for marimba solo.

Traditions are important. Especially in the South. College football. Rivalries. Tailgating. Halftime shows. Some things just don't change. Until Reese Holland shows up with her long legs and no-bullshit attitude to audition for the prestigious all-male Rodner University snare line. It doesn't matter how much hazing she has to endure from Laird Bronson, with his narrowed green eyes and arrogant smirk. She wants that damn spot, and she's more than good enough to earn it. She expects there to be tension. Even friction. But not sparks hot enough to burn the entire campus down.

Since the turn of the millennium, films such as Chicago (2002) and Phantom of the Opera (2004) have reinvigorated the popularity of the screen musical. This edited collection, bringing together a number of international scholars, looks closely at the range and scope of contemporary film musicals, from stage adaptations like Mamma Mia! (2008) and Les Miserables (2012), to less conventional works that elide the genre, like Team America: World Police (2004) and Quentin Tarantino's Kill Bill (2003/04). Looking at the varying aesthetic function of soundtrack and lyric in films like Disney's wildly popular Frozen (2013) and the Fast and the Furious franchise, or the self-reflexive commentary of the 'post-millennial rock musical', this wide-ranging collection breaks new ground in its study of this multifaceted genre.

A collection of 18 difficult level etudes for the concert snare drummer.

Exploring different subdivisions and rhythmic concepts, the book presents the essential theory behind fills, along with exercises and ideas to enrich playing. Topics include switch and path orchestration, diddle kicks, clockwise and counterclockwise playing, hand and foot rolls, stick shots, cymbal chokes, and more. Included with the book are an MP3 CD of recorded fills in different tempos and a 12-page insert of reading texts. Additionally, 20 videos are available online to help demonstrate the concepts in the book. With Jost Nickel's Fill Book, drummers will be inspired and enabled to master the art of playing fills and to even create their own.

The Musician's Lifeline by Peter Erskine and Dave Black represents the combined opinions of the authors and their knowledge gained through their lives in music. In addition, it includes advice from 150 of the best musicians---such as Gordon Goodwin, Nathan East, Janis Siegel, Christian McBride, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Gary Burton, Kenny Werner, Steve Smith, and so many more---who responded to seven simple questions about topics like sight-reading, travel, warm-ups, networking, preparing for auditions, and general wisdom. The answers will surprise, inform, and confirm what you already know or completely contradict what you've been taught by others. This is a book you can read straight through in one sitting or jump around in . . . and always return to time and again.
