neighborhood where she lives and the fancy suburban prep school she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is shattered when Starr witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood best friend Khalil at the hands of a police officer. Khalil was unarmed. Soon afterward, his death is a national headline. Some are calling him a thug, maybe even a drug dealer and a gangbanger. Protesters are taking to the streets in Khalil's name. Some cops and the local drug lord try to intimidate Starr and her family. What everyone wants to know is: what really went down that night? And the only person alive who can answer that is Starr. But what Starr does—or does not—say could upend her community. It could also endanger her life. Want more of Garden Heights? Once upon a time, I threw a princess over my shoulder and carried her out of a bar fight. Jessa has carried that grudge ever since. Hates my guts. She's uncooperative on her best days. Feisty. Stubborn. It's adorable. Not a word I'd ever tell my best friend, of course. Because she's his little sister. The plan was royally simple. Go undercover and protect her.
